STEWARDSHIP MOMENT – The story of the multiplication of the loaves and the fishes is a familiar one, and has many lessons, not least of which is how our willingness to share who we are and what we have - exercising good stewardship - releases God’s power and bountifulness on the world and its people. Do we realize that there is enough for all if we are willing to share? Are we aware that God is at work when we share our time, our money and our other resources in his name?

From The Office Of The Bishop – Bishop Shawn McKnight will be having a monthly intention for us to consider during prayer, adoration hour etc. For the month of July the intention is:

“For the soul of our country; that U.S. citizens may remain true to our founding principles of one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.”

BLOOD DRIVE sponsored by the K of C Ladies Auxiliary will be September 9, 2018 in the cafeteria from 7 a.m. – noon.

MASS INTENTIONS – We have many openings for Mass intentions for the weekday Masses. Mass intentions are generally for the deceased. The offering for each intention is $5. There are no weekend Mass intentions available until after February 2019. Please call or email the rectory for available times or to make arrangements to schedule Mass intentions as slots become available. Mass intentions help souls on their way to heaven and are comforting expressions of faith and love. The infinite graces that flow from the sacrifice of the Mass benefit the souls of the departed.

VOCATION CORNER – “Vocations aren’t the result of planning, but an encounter with God that changes your life. A vocation flows from the heart of God and blossoms in the good soil of faithful people.” – Pope Francis.

Please pray for all seminarians, especially St. Martin graduates, Brad Berhorst and Matt Lorang.
Your prayers and support make a difference.

Dear Parishioners,

As I write this I find it remarkable that I have been here at St. Martin for a month already, it is true that time flies when you're having fun. I want to thank you all for your warm welcome, although I am not fully unpacked, I already feel at home and I hope that you are getting used to my presence as well.

This month was full of activity. It was a joy to be here for the parish picnic and an honor to witness the many people who worked together to make the day such a great success. One of the questions that always follows a picnic is "How did we do?" As of yet, the financial totals are not complete, but just as importantly, we did a great job of working together and building community and ultimately that is what the parish picnic is about. The best part about a parish coming together and working together is we build a spirit of cooperation and community, I witnessed that spirit at our picnic.

This month has given me an opportunity to meet with parish leadership and staff and discuss the needs of the parish. One area that we are going to focus on is building unity and communication. Many parishes with schools see a separation between what the parish does and what the school does, this is a false perspective. Without the parish, the school does not exist; and, the parish benefits from the faithful disciples that are formed in the school. You will notice that the term "parish" will be used to include school and church. This is a reminder that we are all one working together to achieve the same goal of building up the Kingdom of God.

To foster this unity and communication, we have been working with Mrs. Jill Alberti, the Diocesan Director of Parish Communications to develop a parish wide form of communication. This will help internal staff communication as well as communication with the parish as a whole. We are developing a logo that will be used for the parish and will help signify that we are all one working together, celebrating on our past and moving into the future.

On August 1st, Mark McGuire will begin as the Pastoral Minister here at St. Martin Parish. I worked with Mr. McGuire at St. Brendan in Mexico and asked him to come here to St. Martin. He will be coordinating ministries to the sick and homebound; along with coordinating parish religious formation, including the school religion program, Confirmation program, and RCIA, along with developing youth programs. He and his wife, Jerilyn, along with their eight children, are excited about being a part of this community.

With gratitude to all of you for welcoming me to this community, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,
