A Big Thank You for donating kid friendly food items for the Samaritan Center. We have an awesome and generous parish. --- The Social Concerns Commission.

VOCATION CORNER – Everyone's first vocation is to be holy and to reach heaven! To discern your "secondary" vocation takes a lot of prayer. In the end, every vocation requires that you make sacrifices for God and others. Whatever your call, trust that you will be happy if you do God's will. Be not afraid!

Please pray for all seminarians, especially St. Martin graduates, Brad Berhorst, Brad Distler, and Matt Lorang.

- 2) Your full name, a number through which you can be reached, and an e-mail address to which docs can be sent.
- 3) A number at which your parents can be reached by text message or an e-mail address for them.

After you have contacted me, I will confirm to you and your parents that you have done so, and will prepare registration materials and other information for you. Kindly send this information before the end of June.

Be assured that many will be supporting you through prayer. It's a great gift!

LET US GREET OUR NEW PASTOR, FR. LOUIS NELEN WITH....

UNITY – the kind of unity like that of a living body. Our bodies have hundreds of different parts, none of them resembling the others, but each doing its own work and all working together. The result is not sameness, but harmony. When a body functions as it was intended, the result is a beautiful unity.

LOVE -- Actually, love is the glue that bonds the church in unity. Love for Christ and love for each other.

PRAYER/ENCOURAGEMENT -- Pastors are such a blessing to the church and to the Kingdom of God, and we need to pray for them and encourage them at every opportunity. Their job may seem thankless and even overwhelming sometimes, so lifting them up with words of encouragement will go a long way in their lives. Let's challenge ourselves to pray about how we can encourage our pastor, as one small act of kindness may go a long way in enhancing his joy and stamina on behalf of the body of Christ.

Fr. Nelen will officially be our pastor July 1. Please extend a very warm welcome to him.
